

ASSOCIATION FOR ECONOMIC AND DEVELOPMENT STUDIES ON BANGLADESH (AEDSB)

Call for Papers

55th Annual Meeting of Canadian Economic Association
Simon Fraser University, Vancouver, Canada
June 4 (Friday) – June 6 (Sunday), 2021

The Association for Economic and Development Studies on Bangladesh (AEDSB) invites submissions for sessions (on-line) to be held at the 55th Annual Canadian Economic Association conference from June 4 to June 6, 2021 at Simon Fraser University, Vancouver. For general sessions, all fields of specialization in economics will be considered. However, AEDSB will pay particular attention to Bangladesh-specific or development-specific issues. Graduate students are especially encouraged to submit their research.

By submitting an abstract, the presenter also agrees to serve as a discussant and/or programme chair at this/other session(s) within the presenter's area of interest. Each presenter is eligible to present only one paper at the conference. Please see the following link for additional information.

<https://www.economics.ca/cpages/cea2021>

The deadline for submitting a full paper or long abstract is January 25, 2021. Authors will be notified by January 31, 2021 should the paper be accepted for a session. All the authors of Bangladeshi origin of the accepted papers must take AEDSB membership.

The cover page of the submission should contain author name(s), affiliation(s), and contact information including email address of the corresponding author. Please e-mail your submissions to Dr. Murshed Chowdhury (Murshed.Chowdhury@unb.ca).

Please visit the following link to know more about the AEDSB. <http://www.aedsb.org/>.

Organizing Committee:

Bidyut Talukdar, Saint Mary's University, Bidyut.Talukdar@smu.ca

Murshed Chowdhury, University of New Brunswick, Murshed.Chowdhury@unb.ca